BE A PART OF OUR MUSIC

Glee, American Idol, The X-Factor. What have these popular TV programs, and others, done to the modern American music scene? They have, once again, turned A Cappella Harmony Music into the new rage – but this time, on a world-wide scale!

In this climate, what was once strictly an American art form, 4-part Barbershop Harmony, has gone global and young. Out are the days of flat-topped boater's hats, gartered long-sleeved shirts and handlebar mustaches, and in is the excitement of youthful exuberance, modern arrangements and breathtaking performances.

BE A MIAMIAN

The Miamians have been a part of Miami, Florida's music scene since 1948. In 2013, they joined forces with the Sunrise Chordsmen from Broward County, to give all of South Florida the exciting big city sound and feel that this large metropolitan area demands and deserves. The Miamians are South Florida's premiere Men's A Cappella Performance Chorus.

BE A PART OF US

You too can be a part of this scene. Yes, you can be a part of the music we sing. You can become a Miamian.

Visit us at one of our regular rehearsals and bring your instrument with you: your voice - clear strong and able to carry a tune. Call 305-274-7464 to arrange a visit, or just show up.

Perhaps you sang in school, studied music or you sing in a church choir. Maybe you were part of a rock band or have sung professionally. It could even be that you're just a very good singer in the shower, or in your car. The vast majority of our singers are hobbyists and do it simply for the love of the art.

OUR MUSICAL DIRECTOR

The Miamians are musically directed by Ft. Lauderdale's own Alex Rubin. In his early 30's, Mr. Rubin is one of the most talented, dedicated and decorated of the young new breed of A Cappella music directors. In his case, "young new breed" is defined simply by his youth, as Alex has already been "a Barbershopper" for more than 25 years.
